"I'm beyond honored and excited to be kicking off the FIFA Fan Festival at a venue as iconic as the LA Coliseum," said DJ MADDS. "Can't wait to DJ opening day and play a set that matches that massive World Cup energy."

"It's an honor and a privilege to be playing as part of the FIFA World Cup festivities in Los Angeles," said Steve Berlin, Los Lobos. "We're happy to join with all Los Angelenos to present the best of what this city has to offer to all our guests, and we look forward to enjoying the games with everyone."

"From watching the 1984 Olympics as a kid to performing in the LA Memorial Coliseum for the FIFA Fan Festival—what a journey," said DJ Ravidrums. "I'm honored to represent Los Angeles on one of the biggest stages in the world and can't wait to bring the energy."

"As a proud Croatian, being part of the FIFA Fan Fest during the World Cup is a dream come true," said Knolldoll. "Football has always been a huge part of my journey and I can't wait to bring music, energy and celebration to fans from all over the world."

"My two worlds coming together in my hometown of LA," said Mando Fresko. "Excited to be part of FIFA Fan Festival and create an unforgettable experience for the fans."

“The FIFA Fan Festival will be the heartbeat of the FIFA World Cup experience in Los Angeles,” said Kathryn Schloessman, CEO of the Los Angeles World Cup 2026 Host Committee. “From the live matches and headline music performances to the food, culture, and community celebrations, this will be the place where fans come together to experience the excitement and global spirit of the tournament throughout opening week.”

The event will also feature special appearances by FIFA World Cup 2026™ mascots - Maple, Zayu and Clutch and the FIFA World Cup 2026™ LABUBU collection. On Saturday and Sunday, fans will also get a chance to interact with Chase, Skye, and Rubble of the PAW Patrol®, featured in the upcoming theatrical release “PAW Patrol: The Dino Movie™” this August.
